2nd Day Starting from Budva at 8.30 towards Cetinje , former capital of Montenegro approaching Cetinje at 9.30 .Visits to the former kings palace and the famous Cetinje monastery.

After a longer stop at Cetinje continuing towards the village of Njegusi / the birth place of all rulers from the royal dynasty of Petrovic family who ruled Montenegro for more than 220 years. The road from Cetinje to village Njegusi and further south to the town of Kotor is a real masterpiece of engineering. The road was constructed by the engineer Josip Slade at the beginning of 19th century and it is one of the most attractive serpentine roads in Europe. We are taking you to the village inn in Njegusi the oldest inn in Montenegro to try some of the local specialties as smoked ham and cheese, home made bread and to drink home made mead, brandy or wine. (Snacks and drinks are included in the price of this excursion) After the stop at the village of Njegusi, continuing down the serpentine road / 25 serpentines / to the town of Kotor. The breathtaking view to the famous Boka Kotorska bay from the spot at the beginning of serpentines is another highlight of our trip . You'll look down to the bay may be just from the same place from where many famous people like Bernard Show Lord Alfred Tennyson , Pierre Loty , and many other famous people who visited Montenegro to admire it's beauty and untouched nature.

Approaching town of Kotor in the afternoon. Town sightseeing and visit to the Maritime museum included in the price of the excursion. Town of Kotor -an ancient town known during the roman reign at the Montenegrin coast as Acruvium is enlisted in World Cultural Heritage and it's under UNESCO protection. Huge, high town walls about 4,5 km long are just reminding about the old glory and power the town had long time ago. The town of silver and gold smiths, rich trades man writers and painters, and most of all the town of famous sailors and glory fool Kotor merchant fleet . The maritime brotherhood of Kotor area has a tradition more than ten centuries.

Beautiful Catholic cathedral originally from 9th century is a symbol of the town ,and it's dedicated to St. Tryphon the benefactor of the town.
